To All Customers of Garrett Wade Toys and Gifts
We Encourage

Safety First at All Times

Congratulations on your selection of one of the unique gift toys in the Garrett Wade collection. Our toys are meant to be both unusually enjoyable and highly educational. Some are intended to be enjoyed by the entire family and others are best for the younger members. But no matter who enjoys them, it's imperative that they always be used properly and safely.

It is important that they be kept away from smaller children who might be tempted to swallow small parts or blocks. And it is particularly critical that toys with projectiles that are part of the experience (such as the Trebuchet or crossbow or other rubber tipped dart games) always be handled responsibly and any younger members of the family use them only with direct and careful adult supervision. Never "shoot" or throw anything in the vicinity of a person or family pet. This is just good common sense and we ask you to be responsible.
